Beautiful Stockholm

Stockholm, the Capital of Sweden and also called "the beauty on water" is built on 14 islands. The city is over 750 years old and is steeped in tradition and history, with its narrow passageways and lanes, cobbled streets, numerous museums and beautiful palaces. There are plenty of first class restaurants and the nightlife is cosmopolitan. Stockholm is also a city for shopping: clothing, interior design, high-tech, Swedish crystal, arts and handicraft.

Stockholm have friendly people, fresh air, clean streets and closeness to the countryside. It is also easy to get around and you feel quite secure. The overall standard of hotels, restaurants and transportation is very high.

A meeting here for a group is perfect!

After check in at the hotel you can take the boat out to Fjäderholmarna for a lunch or early dinner. Enjoy true archipelago atmosphere only a short boat ride from the city! In just 25 minutes you will experience true Sweden!

The Citysigtseeing includes Vasa Museum, The Royal Palace, The Operahouse and also a visit to the oldest area in Stockholm, Gamla Stan (Old City) with the famous view from street Fjällgatan. Author Stieg Larsson's Three Millennium books about the journalist Mikael Blomqvist and the computer hacker Lisbeth Salander have been translated into more than 40 languages and read by ten of millions the world over. Experience Stockholm from Blomqvist and Salanders perspective on a walking tour!

Many Swedes would say that Midsummer is the most important tradition in the year. We will arrange a Midsummer celebration just for your group! We will add all the necessary ingredients: A midsummer pole that will be dressed in leaves and flowers (by the group of course!). Folklore musicians and dancers that welcome the group. A buffet with typical dishes such as new potatoes, herring, salmon etc. followed perhaps by a barbecue and to round it off: fresh strawberries and cream.

A day in the beautiful Swedish archipelago is something to remember! The group are going by rib boats to Vaxholms fortress which is an old fortress which came into use the first time 1563. Here you will find a restaurant and the museum of Vaxholms fortress and it is also possible to go down to the dim dungeons.

The fortress arranges team activities, which could be a fantastic opportunity for the group to have the team members strength, balance, litheness and endurance put to the test.

Berns Salonger has been a Stockholm landmark since 1863. Situated in the fashionable heart of the city, Berns Salonger features beautiful historic rooms such as a large banquet hall, a copy of the hall of mirrors at Versailles, the Red Room, a theatre as well as other more modern style rooms. This makes it possible to find a venue to suit different types and sizes of groups.

Here you will enjoy a fantastic three course dinner and amazing entertainment! To highlight the evening - how about a sparkling ABBA medley with the best of the best? Enjoy the biggest hits from the well-known Swedish group. Some as the original and some in a new format. This is a classic show that will highlight your evening, and make you want to move!

Of course Stockholm have a lot more to offer and we will put together a tailormade program just for your group!

Welcome with your enquiry!
