

Kayaking in Swedish Archipelago

Experience the beautiful sparkling archipelago on the Swedish east coast by a kayak! You have the opportunity to be a part of a small group with a professional kayak-guide for three full days!

You will start at Gryts Varv with a delicious dinner and overnight in comfortable rooms at the hotel. After breakfast the kayaking adventure will begin. You paddle to a little idyllic island called Bokö. Here you eat lunch and dinner and the overnight stays are in small cabins. The nature here is very relaxing!

After breakfast you paddle to Håradsskär which is one of the most beautiful island in the area. Håradsskär is situated far out in the archipelago and the only sound you can hear are the birds and the sea! The island is flat and smooth which is the character for an island this far out. Here you can take a private bath and experience the beautiful sunset! Lunch during the way and dinner on the island. Overnight stays again in small cabins.

After breakfast you will have a beautiful paddle back to Gryts Varv. A lunch stop on the way and back at Gryt a great dinner with suitable wines are waiting for you! Overnight stays at the hotel.

Next day after a big breakfast you are going home with a full-filled spirit!

For four overnights, two nights at hotel part of double room and two nights in cabins shared by four persons, four breakfasts, three lunches, four dinners with wine, kayaks with all the surrounding equipments and a kayaking professional guide for three days you will pay from 11900 SEK/person (1185 EUR) including VAT. You will take part of a small exclusive group of eight persons.
